ARDEN PLAYHOUSE OPENS ITS SECOND SEASON WITH A COMEDY PREMIERE

Trust Me is another energetic farce, by local playwright Michael Messmer, opening September 24th.

Siblings, Robert and Charlene have to delay the termination of their trust allowance while they put together a plan to take over their deceased uncle's company. In order to confuse the lawyer sent to have them sign off on the trust, they switch genders and roles. Unfortunately, the backer for their takeover plan arrives first and they think this person is the lawyer. When the real lawyer arrives, the siblings are already up to their eyeballs in deception but now they have to create new cousins to explain why there seems to be two sets of relatives. Complications ensue when Charlene is attracted to the backer and Robert is attracted to the lawyer. Add lemonade that's been accidentally laced with pain-killer, a need to check a birthmark located on someone's derriere, a house keeper who is at her wit's end trying to keep up with who is who, and it's easy to see why the guests get confused.

Trust Me has its Arden Playhouse opening on September 24th and continues on Friday and Saturday nights at 8pm until October 30th. Sunday matinees are October 3rd, & 17th, at 2pm. All tickets are $18 general admission. Tickets can be reserved by calling (916) 332-2582.

Arden Playhouse is located at 5640 Roseville Road, Suite D, Sacramento, and seats 150.

Arden Playhouse is a community theater dedicated to continuing its tradition of presenting entertainment in a casual setting.
